No. N. 712
Date 17/3/41
March 15, 1941.

S. 1. Special Branch SHABH File No. Date

SUBJECT: Attempted murder of Tung Sih Eng

At about 8 a.m. yesterday, March 14, 1941, five male Chinese entered the home of Tung Sih Eng (陳錫恩), located at No. 235 The Brenier de Montmorand, French Concession. Upon entering the premises, two of the intruders guarded the door to prevent the inmates from leaving, whilst the remaining three, one armed with a pistol and two with axes, attempted to proceed upstairs. They were, however, prevented from doing so by Chu Tung Zai (朱仁瑞), son-in-law of Tung Sih Eng. One of the intruders then fired one shot at Chu, wounding him in the leg, whereupon the other two immediately proceeded upstairs, where, in the front room, they found Tung Sih Eng and chopped him four times on the head, causing severe injuries.

Having carried out their mission, the intruders, with the exception of the one armed with a pistol, who was grasped by Chu's wife, daughter of Tung Sih Eng, decamped and made good their escape before the arrival of the French Police.

Tung Sih Eng is 63 years of age and a native of Anhwei. He is member of the Dah (大) Character Class of the Green Gang. At present he is adviser to the Shanghai Bao Lee Relief Association 上海道樂救濟協會, located at 5 Avenue Howard VII, and concurrently a member of the Board of Directors of the An Ting League at Hankow (Wang's organization). He, together with his son-in-law, Chu Tung Zai, is
